Programs Sponsored by the Friends

— For All Ages programs, any child under 5 years of age must be accompanied by an adult. —

Sounds So Relaxing (Ages 10+) [®] Monday, June 22 • 4 pm

Negative energy and stress can be such a drag - let Soul Dance Vibrational Sound Therapy energize you! Using sound bowls, guided meditation, deep breathing, and chimes, Catarina will help you and your chakras feel rejuvenated and relaxed.

Birds of a Feather (All Ages) [®] Saturday, August 1 • 11 am

Come celebrate the end of the Summer Learning Challenge during the Wrap-Up Party where you'll learn the who's who of North American wildlife with Hoo Haven Wildlife Rehabilitation & Education Center. Join the Hoo Haven team and their animal ambassadors for a unique, in person look at live birds of prey and learn about the conservation efforts to protect these amazing creatures.

Introduction to Calligraphy (Adults) [®] Tuesday, July 28 • 6:30 pm

Learn calligraphy with local artist and designer Carol O'Rourke. In this class, you will practice brush-pen techniques, explore lettering styles, and learn to create expressive lines. Each student receives a workbook with lettering guides, tracing sheets, basic shapes, full alphabets, brush pens, and blank cards and envelopes for finished pieces. Carol will also share ways to use calligraphy in projects like cards, ornaments, gift tags, and home décor.

Route 66: From Chicago to St. Louis (Adults) [®]

Thursday, August 20 • 6:30 pm
You don't have to drive all the way to California to enjoy Route 66 during its 100th anniversary year. Take a long weekend to explore the cool towns, great food, interesting history, and quirky roadside attractions that line the Mother Road from here to The Lou.

The Friends of the Lemont Library is a volunteer organization and 501(c)(3) supporting our Library as a vital, valued, and welcoming community resource. We assist the Library by financially supporting programs, volunteering, and supporting the staff.

Interested in becoming a Friend of the Library?

Dues are only $10/year and meetings are the 1st Tuesday of every month. Learn more or sign up today at: www.lemontlibraryfriends.org

Friends of the Library Donation Drive
